

Restoration workshops move to Oak Cliff

The Dallas Morning News Friday, May 12, 2000

The

Old Oak Cliff Conservation League

The league consists of 23 North Oak Cliff neighborhood organizations and about 250 members

Oak Cliff is enjoying a rebirth of community as neighbors work together to restore historic houses

With so many people interested in home restoration, the series will touch on a range of topics.

The workshop will be led by Chas Fitzgerald, an architect who has extensive experience in home

Future topics include restoring wood windows, keeping out water, moving historic houses, landscaping

"Home Restoration: Looking at the Whole Picture" is scheduled from 10 a.m. to noon Saturday

Admission is $2 at the door. Refreshments will be provided. For more information, call 972-606-
